

SOCIAL MEDIA USE

Fall 2022 through Spring 2023

Last updated 4.26.22

Official Use of Social Media

Unless specifically authorized by Verto Education, no participant may create an “official” Verto Education presence on any form of website or social media now in existence, or created in the future, or represent themselves as a spokesperson or authorized representative of Verto Education. This includes the use of the Verto Education name or logos in any manner that suggests a connection or oversight. In addition, please do not post photos or videos of other Verto participants or staff without their consent. Remove any content upon their request. A participant may face disciplinary consequences should they post photos or videos of another participant in a compromising situation.

Care must be taken that content and information released to the public over social media is accurate, does not violate applicable laws (including, but not limited to, copyright, trademark, privacy, and defamation laws), or Verto Education’s policies. In general, Verto Education invites discussion of important ideas and issues through social media and email. However, Verto Education reserves the right to remove posts or comments that are obscene, defamatory, threatening, abusive, private information, or unrelated to the abroad experience content or information. Verto Education also reserves the right to remove posts or comments that violate applicable laws including, but not limited to, copyright and trademark, or those that violate the use policies promulgated by the applicable social media provider.
